

Library Management System

The Library Management System mainly consists three types of users.

- Guest user.
- Registered user.
- Admin (Librarian).

Guest user activities

1. Can apply for new membership.
2. Can search for books and see availability.

Registered user activities

1. Can search for books and see availability.
2. Can request for the new book which is not available in the library.
3. Can request for renewal of membership.
4. Can request for due date extension of the book.
5. Can see the all the books which are taken from a library.
6. Can change his password.

Admin activities

1. Can search for the books.
2. Can search for the members.
3. Can edit the details of the book.
4. Can delete the book.
5. Can edit the details of members.
6. Can delete a member.
7. Can add new books.
8. Can issue the books.
9. Can manage the issued books.
10. Can see the new book requests.
11. Can see new membership requests.
12. Can approve new membership requests.
13. Can reject new membership requests.
14. Can see due date extension requests.
15. Can approve the due date extension requests.
16. Can reject the due date extension requests.
17. Can see membership renewal requests.
18. Can approve the membership renewal requests.

19. Can reject the membership renewal requests.
20. Can change the admin password.